AMUSEMENTS TO-NIGHT. FORD'S THEATER.—This evening will be presented the thrilling Irish drams of "Kathleen Mayourneen; or, Under the Spell," in which Mrs. H. Watkins appears as "Kathleen Mayourneen," and Mr. Watkins as "Terence O'Moore." The performance will conclude with the musical farce of "A Loan of a Lover." Mrs. Watkins as "Gertrude," with songs. GROVER'S THEATER.-Last night Dan Setch. ell was welcomed as Washington's favorite Comedian, and this evening will appear in his artistic impersonation of "Asa Trenchard" in the celebrated Comedy of "Our American Consin," the original version of which will be produced entire, with a powerful cast of characters. To-merrow evening will be enacted "Dombey and Son."

Oxford Music Hall .- This hall was crowdedilast evening, to hear the singing of the Scottish Nightingale and Washington favorite, Miss Agnes Sutherland. The Australian Brothers (five in number) are really good, and cannot fail to please many who nightly attend the performances.

CANTERBURY .- Charles Cavelli, the great American pantomimist, Dick Collins, Sylvan Clark, and other performers. The new farce entitled "Nan and her Two Fathers," is a rich

SANDERSON'S MINSTRELS .- This excellent company is still holding forth at their new hall, corner of Ninth and D streets, and all who wish to see them we can promise a pleasant time. Go and see them.

AN INCIDENT IM THE LIFE OF THE HUNTER KINMAN .- A thrilling incident in the life of Mr. Seth Kinman, the renowned hunter, now in Washington, has just come to our knowledge, and which is now made public for the first time. It shows of what stuff the man is made, and the fact that he has never before disclosed it, reveals a modesty worthy the man and possessed by few. On the 5th day of January, 1860, he (Kinman) and three of his neighbors were enjoying themselves at his residence, in Humbolt county. Cal., and on the shores of the beautiful Humbolt Bay. Towards evening, Kinman fancied that he heard the faint distant tones of cannon; he left the house and followed the sound; he soon saw what was the matter, a steamer heading north firing minute guns, evidently in distress. She soon veered towards the east, making direct towards the residence of our hero, who now rushed into his house, saying to his neighbors, "Boys, there's trouble out here, we must now do or die; come! Taking a rope with him, away they sped The steamer beached at a distance of full three hundred yards from the shore. The surf was dreadful, and the undertow nothing could stand. The foamy tops of the rolling billows were peopled with human freight, and there was a general wreck of upper works and fur-niture. Nothing daunted, Kinman fastened one end of the rope he had brought along around his body, gave the other end to his hardy comrades, telling them to watch him, and, whenever he got hold of any person, to haul him back. In this manner he continued to work until he had succeeded in drawing out nearly one hundred persons. The vessel proved to be the Northerner, bound from San Francisco, California, to Portland, Oregon. She had run upon a sunken rock off Cape Mendoseno, stove a hole in her bottom, and commenced filling fast. While thus settling, her gallant captain, Wm. M. Dall, made for the coast, and suc-

SAN FRANCISCO, CAL., Feb. 2, 1860 .- Seth Kinman, Esq. Humbolt County, Cal.—Dear Sir: We have heard of your noble work at the wreck of the Northerner, of the kindness of your good mother and family to our crew. We can never forget the debt of gratitude we owe you; we hope we may soon see you here to thank you in person. You shall always have a passage on any of our steamers, at your disposal, and we hope whom were saved; forty passed beyond the shores of time. The following letter was

you will come down. May Heaven bless you and yours, and watch over a life so fearlessly risked to save others. Faithfully and respectfully, FORBES & BABCOCK, Agents.

GRAND LARGENY CASE.—Yesterday officer Taylor, of the Third ward, arrested Frances Ann Brock and Mary Ann Dade, col'd, upon a charge of stealing $35, the property of Mrs. R. S. Harrison. They were taken before Justice Hollingshead, where Frances confessed that she stole the money and gave it to Mary A. Dade. The money was not recovered, and the Justice held Mary A. Dade to bail for a further hearing. The other girl was a servant in Mrs. Harrison's house, and being quite a child was permitted to go home until she is wanted to aid in the recovery of the money.

THE DRAFT.-This morning, the Board of Enrollment resumed the draft in several of the sub districts, to fill the deficiency under the last call. The second, fifth and eleventh sub districts were drawn-16 from the second, the deficiency being 8; 22 from the fifth, the deficiency being 11; and 28 from the other, the deficiency being 14. The list will not be made public until the netices are served, which will be dore immediately. This is to prevent skedaddling on the part of those drafted.

RELEASED.—In the prize court, (Judge Wylie,) on Friday, an order was made directing the restoration of the sloops Reliance and Little Elmer to the owners on they paying the costs. These sloops were captured in Monjack Bay by the United States steamer Stepping Stones for violating the blockade. Mr. Wilson appeared for the Government, Mr. Eames for the captors, and Mr. Davis for the owners.

FAIRS TO-NIGHT .- The ladies of the Foundry M. E. Church continue their fair to-night at Odd Fellows's Hall, 7th street To-morrow evening the fair closes. Go and spend a pleasant evening. The ladies' fair at Union Hotel, Georgetown, for the benefit of Mission Chapel, Alexandria county, Va., is taking well, and the visitors are highly pleased. FENIAN BROTHERHOOD BALL.-This ball will take place this evening, at Temperance Hall, on E street, between 9th and 10th streets. Much pains has been taken to make this the best ball of the season, both in point of comfort and enjoyment. "Let's have a little dance to-ODD FELLOWS' LEVEE .- On Thursday evening next, the Library Association (I.O. O. F.)

give their grand levee for the benefit of their library, when you may lookout for a season of pleasure. A number of sister Lodges will GRAND CONCERT .- The young ladies of the public schools, Second District, give a concert on next Friday evening for the benefit of the Protestant Orphan Asylum. Prof. J. H. Daniel has the direction of the concert, so you may promise yourself a joyous time.

THE WORLD RENOWNED LAVA TIP COM-

Have at last been received, and are new on exhibition and for sale at No. 15 4% street, (one door below Dr. Sunderland's Church,) in this city.

Their merits speak for themselves; a trial of these Burners will convice any and all persons that they are what has long been needed by the consumers of gas in this city.

They give you a clearer, softer, and better light, at from fifteen to thirty and even forty per cent less money than you are now paying for gas.

The Lava Tip is such that it cannot corrode, therefore always remains clear and perfect.

The combination of the Burner prevents any more gas from passing through it than is actually consumed.

I would respectfully solicit a call from all those interested, and examine for themselves into the respective merits of the Burners.
